And there is still uses everywhere.
Like troubled sprite, here and there
The fireight shadows firstering go.
And as the shadows round me creep
Achildish troble broaks the gloom.
And softly from a further round
Comes "Now I lay me down to sleep."

And, somehow, with that little prayer and that sweet treble in my race, My thought goes back to distant years and lingers with a dear one there. And as I hear the child's amen. My mother's faith somes back to me, Cyuched as her side i seem to be.

And mother's faith somes back to me, Cyuched as her side i seem to be. And mother house my hance again.
Oh, for an hour in that dear place!
Ob, for the peace of that dear time!
Oh, for a glimpse of mather's face!
Yet, as the shadows round me creep,
I do not seem to be along—
Newettings of that treble tone—
And "New I lay me down to gleep."

Receipt for Cooking calls for baking powder, or soda and cream of tartar, better results will be obtained by using Royal Baking Powder. The food will be lighter, whiter, sweeter, more finely flavored, palatable and wholesome.

MARION HARLAND says: "I regard the Royal Baking Powder as the best in the market. Since its introduction into my kitchen I have used no other."

> The " Tar and Tartar" last night had its seventy-eighth performance. It has been Manager Askin's intention until recently to bring the run of the "Tar and Tartar" to a close Sept. 5, but in view of the success the opera has achieved, both he and Mr. Palmer are anxious for more time. Negotiations have already begun with Julian Magnus, Marie Wainwright's manager, who was to have opened Sept. 7, and it is highly probable the 'Tar " will hold the boards until December. "Wang" shows no sign of diminution in

The Broadway, with its rattan chairs and pure atmosphere, has not needed cooler nights to make it comfort-able, but nevertheless the change in weather is appreciated. Richard Mansfield reopened the Garden Theatre last night with "Prince Karl," which will be repeated to-night. To-morrow night "Beau Brummell" will be given. Mr. Mans-field appears much refreshed by his two weeks vacation and was received by a good-weeks' vacation and sized audience. A series of Composer's Nights are being given by Theodore Thomas at the Madison Square Garden. To-night, a Beethoven pro-gramme will be given. Mr. Thomas's season here closes about the middle of August.
